Keeping it Faux...

Its that time of year again! Wardrobes are being delved into with the hope of those reliable winter staples being found once again.

If you have lost that right hand glove or looking to complete that faithful hat and scarf set, why not take some inspiration from the huge Autumn/ Winter trend that is hitting our high streets. Faux Fur! Faux Fur has made a huge comeback this season with Fendi, Cavalli and Alexander McQueen all championing the look for AW14. The fur trend has been taken to new levels with a lashings of colour and never before seen combinations. Have fun with the trend and add some fun accessories to any look. Fur bags and simple key chains can be found everywhere this season and allow the less confident to enjoy the trend. Fur stilettoes have also made a appearance, great for keeping those party feet warm and are a really fun alternative to the normal stiletto.

For those looking for more of a investment piece, opt for a classic fur coat or some neutral accessories which will never go out of fashion and can remain with those ever faithful winter pieces.

Colour Explosion

Colour has made a comeback in fur this season. For the bold, opt for a striking fur coat, they can be found all over the high street and come in colours such as blues, pinks, reds and even multi coloured. Luckily for those less confident there is plenty to choose from, why not invest in a small fur coloured accessory to brighten up a outfit.
